

The 10th edition of the International Conference on WWW/Internet was held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, during 5-8 November, 2011.

It was organized by the International Association for Development of the Information Society (IADIS) and co-organized by UNIRIO.

Co-organize by:

The main intention of this Conference was to serve as a forum to assemble researchers, practitioners, students and anyone who worked or studied within the field of WWW/Internet. The Conference aimed to address the main issues of concern within WWW/Internet and to cover both technological as well as non-technological issues related to developments of the WWW/Internet.

This edition had 252 submissions from more than 27 countries. Each submission had been anonymously reviewed by an average of four independent reviewers, to ensure the final high standard of the accepted submissions. The final result was the approval of 50 full papers, which meant that the acceptance rate was below 20%. A few more papers have been accepted as short papers, reflection papers, and posters.

Extended versions of the best papers were published in selected journals, especially in the IADIS International Journal on WWW/Internet (ISSN: 1645-7641) and in other selected journals.

The Conference Program featured an opening and closing sessions, 17 parallel paper sessions, which included the presentation of full, short and reflection papers and posters. In addition, the conference also included two keynote presentations from internationally distinguished researchers.
